Customer Reviews

Linda Edwards' legal writing textbooks have been a staple in legal writing academia as long as I've been teaching legal writing, and I started teaching at Southwestern University Law School in L.A. in 1991. Her samples just keep getting better. My only issue with this - and other legal writing textbooks is that they include more material than a legal writing professor can cover in a typical program, and they are so pricey.- Joan Catherine Bohl[...]

I think this book costs too much for information in it.I didn't find it really useful. Waste of money as for me.

Just what I expected, perfect condition

Good condition.
